2. [redacted] together with his dependents and household goods, is being returned to Honolulu, T. H., his original point of employment under Public Law 500, Section 7. The travel is necessary because employee has contracted an active case of Tuberculosis, is unable to perform his assigned duties, and must be returned to his home for treatment. Army medical authorities in Tokyo have ordered his evacuation.

25X1

Evacuation of [redacted] by hospital plane is being performed by the Army in Tokyo. FBIB understands that this Agency will not be asked for reimbursement. However, travel orders are necessary in order to permit travel of dependents and shipment of household goods.

At the present time [redacted] is pregnant and unable to travel. Army doctors have advised her that she may travel on or about 1 September 1948.

3. The time required for recovery of [redacted] is unknown, and cannot at this time be accurately determined. When such recovery is complete the Chief, FBIB desires to reemploy [redacted] and return him to the Far East. It is believed that reemployment would be justified, and in the best interests of the government, because of the fact that [redacted] is a well qualified Korean Monitor, of which there is an extreme shortage in the Tokyo area.
